

John Kelly [1933-2015] was a school teacher both in St. Francis Parish School and in the Milwaukee Public School System. In his lifetime, he was very devoted to issues of social justice, particularly the struggles of the incarcerated. Upon his death, he left much of his estate to St. Francis of Assisi Church where he served every Sunday as a greeter to those who entered the church for Mass. In his memory, money from his estate was set aside to refurbish a multi-bedroom apartment for occupancy by program participants in Table of the Saints.
